

WSU Winter Canola tour

Wednesday, May 24, 4:00 p.m.

Curtis & Erika Hennings' farm

Ralston, WA

Tour topics:

- History of winter canola production on Hennings' farm (Curtis Hennings)
- Large-scale winter canola variety trials
- Nitrogen rate and timing in winter canola (Haiying Tao, WSU)
- Fertilizer placement and canola seedling root growth (Isaac Madsen, WSU)
- Blackleg and pest scouting tips; report on plant samples coming into the WSU Plant Pest Diagnostic Clinic (Karen Sowers and Rachel Bomberger, WSU)
- Dual-purpose winter canola for grazing and seed production (Ely Walker, WSU grad)
- Canola markets and marketing (Daniel Stenbakken, Viterra/Pacific Coast Canola)
- PNW Canola Grower Association update (Karen Sowers, WSU)

Winter Canola Varieties

Amanda

Claremore

Edimax

Griffin

HyCLASS 225

Largo

DIRECTIONS (to 57 N Marcellus Rd)

From Washtucna, continue west on SR 26 5.5 mi to Marcellus Rd. Turn right (north), drive 8 miles to E Providence Rd. Turn right (east), then left onto N Marcellus Rd. Drive north to the tour location.

From Ritzville, take WA-261S 14 miles south to E Providence Rd. Turn right (west) and drive 2.6 miles to N Marcellus Rd. Turn right (north) and the tour location will be ahead on the left.

 BBQ will be provided following the tour; RSVP required. Please RSVP to Karen (ksowers@wsu.edu) so we have an accurate count.

Many thanks to cooperators Curtis & Erika Hennings, all the presenters, WOCS team, and Viterra

To RSVP, or for additional information contact Karen Sowers 808-283-7013; ksowers@wsu.edu