Join the PNW Canola Association!

The mission of the PNWCA is “To grow the canola industry in the Pacific Northwest through education, advocacy, and marketing.” Your membership will go towards supporting research, education, outreach, and lobbying efforts to further benefit the canola industry in Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington.

Membership Categories

Producer Members ($75)
This category is for growers who are actively involved in farming, and who have an interest in canola. Annual dues are $75 for producer memberships, of which $25 will be sent to the U.S. Canola Association for membership in the national organization. Producer members are eligible to vote in the Board of Directors election that is held during the Annual Membership portion of the Feb/Mar USCA Annual Membership and Board of Directors meeting.

Industry Members ($500-$5,000)
This category includes any business, organization or individuals which have an interest in canola and the betterment of the canola industry. There are four levels of membership available:

- Platinum ($5,000) – Platinum level membership entitles the member to a voting seat on the PNWCA Board of Directors
- Gold ($2,500)
- Silver ($1,000)
- Associate ($500)

Agency Members ($100):
This category includes any non-profit organization or government agency or employees of one of these agency members, which have an interest in canola and the betterment of the canola industry.

Your annual membership fee is tax deductible as we are a non-profit tax exempt organization. Please include your name, mailing address, and email along with a check made out to PNW Canola Association and mail to:
